

Almirall celebrates 10 years in Mexico

Barcelona, 2 February 2012.- Almirall, an international research-based company committed to health, is celebrating its ten anniversary in Mexico.

Over the last three years Almirall Mexico has launched nine products to treat diseases such as irritable bowel syndrome, gastroesophageal reflux and dyspepsia, among others, along with a dermatology line to treat skin disorders.

Almirall Mexico was also recently awarded the distinguished award Company with Transparent Practices for its ethical responsibility.

Israel García, General Manager in Mexico, stated: “the success of our launches has enabled us to consolidate ourselves in Mexico through 10 years of continuous growth. Our goal is to keep offering therapeutic solutions of high added value to the Mexican society”.

To celebrate this anniversary the pharmaceutical company held a commemorative event at the Museum of Economy in Mexico, D.F., which was attended by the Almirall Mexico team and other company members, as well as dignitaries from the industry and healthcare sector.

Its commitment to innovation and internationalisation has enabled Almirall to expand worldwide. Almirall now has 12 affiliates in Europe and Latin America, and its proprietary research medicines are present in 70 countries in the five continents.
